

IBCA indiscriminately review the applications to verify the accuracy of the information submitted and to confirm the credibility of the candidature.

Note: Candidates who refuse to participate in the review, do not respond to the request within the deadline specified in the audit email, or do not have the required documentation to support their application, will not be permitted to take the exam or their earned credential may be revoked.

1) REVIEW RESULT:

Candidates who have been selected for the review will be apprised of the outcome by email. Therefore, it is important for the candidates to submit all the necessary documents while submitting the audit information to avoid any delays. Also, the documents submitted for audit should be supplementary to the application submitted during the registration process.

2) DOCUMENTS REQUIRED:

- Education and Work Experience documents, as requested (official transcripts, work experience letters, detailed job descriptions etc.)
- Candidacy Review Form signed and completed
